

Funded by the European Union

Covenant of Mayors
for Climate & Energy
Eastern Partnership

Newsletter #9

Fifteen years of energy and climate action

The communities, the people, and the progress that have shaped local climate action across the Eastern Partnership.

Anniversary
Covenant of Mayors
for Climate & Energy
Eastern Partnership

The anniversary conference

Over 200 participants from five countries gathered in Chişinău to mark 15 years of local climate action.

Learn more

"This anniversary is also a moment to look ahead to the next phase of our common work on climate action, energy efficiency, resilience, and sustainable local development," Iwona Piórko, EU Ambassador to Moldova

Eight municipalities from Armenia, Azerbaijan, Moldova and Ukraine received CoM East Awards, recognised for progress in low-carbon and climate-resilient development. Find out more

Two days of discussions, shared experience and moments worth remembering.
A few highlights below.

Browse gallery

A fireside chat with Christophe Frering

From sceptic to 15 years in post — Christophe Frering on the lessons, the frustrations and the surprises.

Learn more

Voices from the field

Stepanavan: solar panels and a strategy that sticks

Solar panels, modernised streets and a long-term energy plan. Stepanavan shares what CoM East membership has built.

Read full interview

Solonytsivka: from reactive to systematic

From reactive decisions to a long-term energy plan. Ukrainian community shares what its CoM East commitment changed.

Find more details

Opishnia stopped guessing and started planning

Solar panels on schools, data-driven decisions, a community that thinks long-term. This is what Opishnia's Covenant of Mayors commitment looks like.

Learn more

The city that cut energy use by 78 per cent

Energy consumption cut by 78 per cent across different buildings. Ialoveni shares how a commitment to the CoM East drove that change.

Find out more

Covenant of Mayors for Climate and Energy

You received this email because you signed up on our website or participated in the event(s).

Unsubscribe

